

Titles/Descriptions

Director - Transmission Maintenance & Work Management.

Business Unit: Transmission

Job Title: Director - Transmission Maintenance & Work Management.

Job Description: Director -- Transmission Maintenance & Work Management.

Responsible for the direction and oversight of all aspects of the construction, test, maintenance and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system. Included in the scope is responsibility for inspection, test, and maintenance of overhead, underground and substation facilities. Also included is safety and health, environmental compliance, training, SCADA system installations/maintenance and vegetation management.

Manager – Transmission Test and Tech Support

Responsible for the management of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system. Manages transmission construction, test and maintenance supervision and supports certain activities listed in the job description for the Director – Transmission Maintenance.

Manager – Transmission Line Construction & Maintenance

Responsible for the management of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system. Manages transmission construction, test and maintenance supervision and supports certain activities listed in the job description for the Director – Transmission Maintenance.

Manager – Transmission Substation Maintenance - CL&P

Responsible for the management of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system. Manages transmission substation & Maintenance, test and maintenance supervision and supports certain activities listed in the job description for the Director – Transmission Maintenance.

Manager – Transmission Construction and Maintenance

Responsible for the management of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system. Manages transmission construction, test and maintenance supervision and supports certain activities listed in the job description for the Director – Transmission Maintenance.

Manager – Transmission Field Construction Program

Responsible for the management of transmission field construction program test and maintenance staff in support of certain aspects of transmission field construction program, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.

Supervisor – Transmission Automation

Supervises transmission construction, test and maintenance staff in support of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.

Supervisor – Transmission Vegetation Management

Supervises transmission construction, test and maintenance staff in support of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.

Supervisor – Transmission Field Contract Services

Supervises transmission construction, test and maintenance staff in support of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.

Supervisor – Transmission Field Contract Services PSNH

Supervises transmission construction, test and maintenance staff in support of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.

Supervisor – Transmission Substation Construction & Maintenance PSNH

Supervises transmission construction, test and maintenance staff in support of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.

Supervisor – Transmission Substation Construction Services

Supervises transmission construction, test and maintenance staff in support of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.

Supervisor – Transmission Communication & Control PSNH

Supervises transmission construction, test and maintenance staff in support of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.

Transmission - Team Leader Work Management

Supervises transmission construction, test and maintenance staff in support of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.

Supervisor - Safety & Environmental (Transmission)

Supervises transmission construction, test and maintenance staff in support of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.

Senior Test Analyst – Transmission Test

Supervises transmission construction, test and maintenance staff in support of certain aspects of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.

Field Supervisor – Transmission Line Construction & Maintenance

Acts as lead and/or carries out assignments in support of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.

Field Supervisor – Transmission S/S Construction & Maintenance

Acts as lead and/or carries out assignments in support of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.

Field Supervisor – Transmission Test

Acts as lead and/or carries out assignments in support of transmission construction, test, maintenance, technical support and contract services of overhead and underground transmission facilities and transmission substations for the NU system.