

Titles/Descriptions

Manager Transmission Interconnections & Services

Business Unit: Transmission

Job Title: Manager Transmission Interconnections & Services

Job Description: Manager - Transmission Interconnections & Services

Acts as lead/or carries out assignment to perform analysis and reporting function for Transmission Projects to accurately reflect performance and aid improvement/optimization of overall performance

Analyst Transmission

Acts as lead and/or carries out assignments in support of transmission project services activities including those listed in the job description for the Director – Transmission Projects.

Risk Management Program - ManagerTransmission

Acts as lead/or carries out assignment to perform analysis and reporting function for Transmission Projects to accurately reflect performance and aid improvement/optimization of overall performance

Senior Engineer

Acts as lead and/or carries out assignments in support of transmission project services activities including those listed in the job description for the Director – Transmission Projects.