

October 18, 2010 – NSTAR and Northeast Utilities have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger pursuant to which NSTAR will, upon closing, become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Northeast Utilities. The merger will close after all required regulatory approvals have been obtained, which is expected to take 9-12 months.