

ENJOY THE CONVENIENCE OF PAPERLESS BILLING

At Eversource, we're always working to serve you better

One great option to make your life easier is E-Bill. Instead of receiving a paper bill each month, you'll receive an email reminder. After receiving the reminder, paying your bill securely is a few short clicks away and an electronic version of your bill is always available.

To enroll, visit Eversource.com/paperless or scan the code with your phone's camera.

If you are not satisfied with our investigation or the payment plan we have offered on the overdue portion of your bill, you may appeal by calling the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities (DPU) at 877-886-5066 or 617-737-2836, or by writing: Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities, Consumer Division, One South Station, Boston, MA 02110. The DPU's website is mass.gov/dpu/

If you have a question about the Supplier Services section of your bill and your supplier is not Eversource, please contact your supplier directly.

Protection for Residential Customers 65 and Older

If you and everyone living in your home are 65 years old or older and you have overdue bills, Eversource will not shut off your service without an investigation by the Department of Public Utilities. Please contact Eversource to apply for this protection.

Budget Billing

Arrange for equal monthly payments based upon your annual usage. Visit Eversource.com or call 800-688-6160 for more information.

Payment Plans

Eversource offers a variety of payment plans for residential customers with overdue bills. More information about Payment Plans is available on our website or by calling 800-688-6160.

Important Information for Residential Customers

You are protected by important consumer laws. Your gas service cannot be shut off, or will be restored, if you certify to the company that you are unable to pay any overdue bill because of financial hardship and you can document the following:

- Someone living in your home is seriously ill; or
- A child under 12 months old lives in your home; or
- Between November 15 and March 15 your service provides heat or operates the heating system and your service was not shut off for non-payment before November 15; or
- All adults living in the home are age 65 or older and a minor resides in the home.

Please contact Eversource at 800-688-6160 to receive a financial hardship form, or for more information about the residential protections listed above.

Copies of all rate schedules are available upon request. Service is subject to the company's Terms and Conditions. We reserve the right to convert consumer checks to electronic format and re-present returned ACH debit requests electronically.
