

Experience Energy-Efficient, High-Performance Living

Build more than a house and create your own renewable energy future by electrifying your living space, and prioritizing energy efficiency, comfort, and indoor air quality. Minimize maintenance and energy use and reduce your environmental impact with a sustainable and efficient home for the future.

Eversource offers customers up to $10,000 in incentives and expert guidance for builders, developers, and homeowners when building all-electric new construction.

Explore the possibilities at eversource.com/new-construction or connect with your builder to transform your vision into reality.

EVERSOURCE

Proud Sponsor of

Winter Energy Hacks for Renters

There are many ways you can save energy even if you're renting. Consider trying some of the below tips to increase comfort and reduce energy usage this winter.

- Keep cold air at bay with door draft stoppers
- Close off lesser-used rooms to reduce areas that need heating
- Ensure vents and radiators are unobstructed for free-flowing warmth
- Open curtains on sunny winter days to reduce both heating and lighting needs

Visit eversource.com/energy-saving-tips to learn more.

EVERSOURCE