Important Information for Residential Customers

You are protected by important consumer laws. Your electric or gas service cannot be shut off, or will be restored, if you certify to the company that you are unable to pay any overdue bill because of financial hardship and you can document the following:

- Someone living in your home is seriously ill; or
- A child under 12 months old lives in your home; or
- Between November 15 and March 15 your service provides heat or operates the heating system and your service was not shut off for non-payment before November 15; or
- All adults living in the home are age 65 or older and a minor resides in the home.

Please contact Eversource at 800-592-2000 to receive a financial hardship form, or for more information about the residential protections listed above.

Copies of all rate schedules are available upon request. Service is subject to the company's Terms and Conditions. We reserve the right to convert consumer checks to electronic format and re-present returned ACH debit requests electronically.

Electric rates are decreasing because the cost of natural gas has decreased. In New England, we've been more susceptible to price increases because more than half of the region's electricity is produced with natural gas.

While this is good news and much needed relief, energy markets are still volatile. These same issues may continue to affect energy prices this winter.

Did you know that you use about 40% more energy to keep cool in the hot summer months?

To feel the full benefit of lower supply prices, keep your energy use down with our energy efficiency tips, tools and programs by visiting eversource.com/summer-bill.
