MERRIMACK STATION
- Location: Bow
- Two units (Coal)
- In service date: 1960
- Nameplate capacity: 459 megawatts

NEWINGTON STATION
- Location: Newington
- One unit (Oil/Natural Gas)
- In service date: 1974
- Nameplate capacity: 416 megawatts

SCHILLER STATION
- Location: Portsmouth
- Three units (Coal, Oil, Wood)
- In service date: 1952
- Nameplate capacity: 150 megawatts

COMBUSTION TURBINE PEAKING UNITS
- Location: Merrimack Station, Bow (2), Schiller Station Portsmouth (1), and remote units in Groveton and Tamworth
- “Peaking units” are designed to burn jet fuel and natural gas in times of high demand and when needed for transmission system reliability
- Nameplate capacity: Merrimack Station, 43 megawatts combined; Schiller Station, 21.7 megawatts; Groveton, 18 megawatts; Tamworth, 22.4 megawatts